Ask our AI Assistant:

"What are the Apocrypha and do Lutherans consider them Scripture?"

The Apocrypha, also known as the Deuterocanonical books, refers to a collection of writings that were included in the Septuagint (the ancient Greek translation of the Hebrew Bible) and in the Old Latin and Vulgate translations, but are not part of the Hebrew canon that forms the basis for the Protestant Old Testament. These books include Tobit, Judith, Wisdom, Ecclesiasticus (Sirach), Baruch, and 1 and 2 Maccabees, among others.

QUERY

I am not sure I am worthy of love

RESPONSE

I'm really sorry to hear that you're feeling this way. It's important to remember that you are indeed worthy of love. In our faith, we believe that God's love is unconditional and encompasses everyone, regardless of our past or present struggles.

As I shared before, there's a powerful reminder in our community that we are all God's beloved. No matter where we come from or what we've done, God's love for us is greater than any doubts we may have about ourselves.

If you're feeling lost or unworthy, I encourage you to talk with Pastor Cheryl. She is always here to listen and support you. You are not alone in this journey, and there are people in our community who care deeply about you. Would you like to explore ways to connect with others or find support?

– Grounded response based on Scripture + Lutheran theology
– Not internet speculation
